

ESUG/SUME Regional Meeting for Europe, in Karlovac, Croatia, during 23-25 April 2019

Provisional Programme at 4 December 2018

Day 1, Afternoon Session 1

Introduction to IUCN-CEM

Introduction to CEM-SUME

Other partner organisations

Introduction to conservation theme of meeting:

“Why use community-based multilingual networks for conservation through sustainable use?”

Day 1, Afternoon Session 2 – of

Four presentations on concepts and tools for global-with-local networks

“Agricultural ecosystem restoration based on the Perdixnet approach”

“Assessing aquatic ecosystems: water quality and invasive species”

“What hunters can do: community ecosystem management for mammals”

“Opportunities to fund conservation networking through tourism”

Day 2, Morning – parallel sessions

A. General Meeting of European Sustainable Use Group

- Agenda to be circulated

B. Training to run:

- The Multilingual Hub
- The SYCL* nodes
- The social network

Day 2, Afternoon 1 – parallel sessions

Meeting of Thematic Group for Sustainable Use and Management of Ecosystems

- Agenda to be circulated

Training to run:

- The Multilingual Hub
- The SYCL* nodes
- The social network

Day 2, Afternoon 2 – parallel break-outs

Building project actions

- Can Horizon 2010 still fund agricultural projects based on networking?
- Are we ready to network for assessing aquatic ecosystems?
- Community management for mammals: is it the right time?
- Can we network to conserve biodiversity through tourism?

Day 3, Morning

Conclusions and commitments from break-outs

Optional: Training in Multilingual Hub and Social Network building